

Next Monday is Armistice Day—and that makes me think of two things—and anything that makes me think is good. . . . First—why hasn't anything been done here to observe the day? . . . So far, the only contribution to marking the day has been made by the Eastern Star Luncheon club which last Friday dedicated its program to the day which commemorates the ending of World War I. . . . Armistice Day should rank with Memorial Day as a national holiday.

ARMISTICE DAY also recalls what happened 28 years ago come Thursday . . . Nov. 7, 1918. . . . Things were peaceful that day, just the routine news of the Germans being pushed back steadily and indications of victory growing. . . . Then, all of a sudden, the bell on the telephone began to jangle, meaning FLASH. . . . It was a bulletin that Germany had surrendered. . . . That was enough. . . . We picked out the biggest type we had, about eight inches tall, and spread the word PEACE across the front page and 40 minutes later a parade was forming. . . . It was during prohibition but for once the makers of grape brandy didn't stop to put in the bourbon, rye or Scotch flavors and whisper that it had just come in from the boat off San Juan. . . . They just called it brandy and the police didn't care, the war was over. . . . Then came the headache. . . . The war was still on. . . . But everybody recovered by Nov. 11 to stage another parade. . . . That was the real Armistice Day.

THEN it was the United Press which was blamed for the false peace flash. . . . In World War II, it was the Associated Press. . . . But both were honest. . . . International politics changed the picture and some day the real story will be told. . . . My grandchild (says he, hopefully) will probably read about that in history. . . . After all of these mean things I've said about jay-walkers, certainly got called down yesterday. . . . Picked the wrong car when I strayed across the street in the middle of the 300 block. . . . It was a police car with Buzz Ordway at the wheel. . . . And Mrs. Harriet Henderson, going up the sidewalk heard it and almost dropped her basket of groceries, laughing at me.

VARIETY is the spice of driving an automobile to Los Angeles each week-end. . . . I get up at 4:30 a. m. in order to get here around 7 a. m. on Mondays. . . . Two weeks ago yesterday I had back, soupy, white fog from Five "get into Kellogg Hills; a week ago, a rain from Pomona to Beaumont; Saturday, going in sand so thick you couldn't see the front of the hood and yesterday coming out, smudge smoke from West Covina to Ontario and sand from Guasti to Bloomington. . . . And, then, on west bound trips Saturday afternoons, all the crazy drivers in Southern California. . . . There's only one thing left now—an earthquake to crack up the road ahead of me. . . . Must page Jimmy Shea of the F.S.P.—"Next time try the train."

THE HIT PARADE last Saturday night delighted me. . . . "This Is Always," my latest pick got on. . . . So did "Old Buttermilk Sky" and "Rumors Are Flying." . . . On the other hand, one I didn't pick and don't care so much about is No. 2 and will probably be No. 1 next week—"South America Take It Away." . . . Haven't been able to pick an argument with Mrs. G about top tunes lately. . . . She contends there hasn't been anything worth while since "To Each His Own" and "Symphony." . . . Barbara Schilly of Bernard's of Hollywood was on the phone yesterday: "How come there was no credit line on that picture of Charley Morrison and Trav Rogers last week, Bernard took that picture." . . . Hope that makes up for the neglect.

THE MAIL brought a good comment from Ella Loth Johnson this week: "They ask us to save used fats which are needed in making soap. Well, I faithfully have been saving used fats—but where's the soap?" . . . Regret to say there was not a line on benches this week. Probably too chilly. . . . Conky Konwright had me all upset today. Brought in a can labelled "Genuine Diamond Back Rattlesnake meat with supreme sauce," and there were instructions on how to prepare it. . . . Said he found it at Sam and Leo's Cantina. . . . Wild Bill Rashall swiped it from me for which I am duly grateful. . . . For years, as you who read this know, I have never spent a cent. . . . Save all the pennies I get in change and wrap them up. . . . Makes the girls at the bank peevish but during the war, those pennies bought four $25 bonds alone. . . . Mrs. G sprung a new one on me this week. Said pennies take too long. . . . So now I am collecting silver dollars. . . . Every one I get goes into an old jelly jar. . . . They mount up much quicker than pennies.

IN CONCLUSION, if I say Good Morning to you when it's after 12 o'clock, it may be that I'm still on standard time . . . and have you voted?

Seek Villager Brothers, Apart 62 Years, Meet Here

Million Dollar Case Is Reflected Here

Palm Springs Sunday night figured in one of the biggest swindle and embezzlement cases on record in the nation when Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann was called by New York police to aid in locating James Collins, one of the men sought for questioning in the million dollar Mergenthaler Linotype embezzlement case.

According to local police, Collins said he had bought an interest in The Stables here but this was denied by the Charles Morrison interests which bought the place earlier this year. Collins was guest at the gala opening a week ago last Friday but, it was said, in no way financially connected with the resort.

CHIEF KETTMANN was called by the New York police chief for any information which might assist in locating the wanted Collins, who is one of two men still sought as alleged accomplices of Cashier William Nickel. The latter, who has confessed to an amazing series of robberies of his employer, since his arrest at Miami, and Isadore Rappaport, Manhattan business man is under arrest in New York City.

Collins, well known Broadway character, said by New York police to be an associate of the notorious Bugsy Siegel, is said to really be Julius Davis. He is sought along with Joseph Milstein of Manhattan, for questioning about the cashing of checks for large sums involved in the embezzlement.

IN A REPORT on the police blotter Sunday, it was said that a man answering Collins' description had been noticed leaving a Palm Canyon drive lounge and walking north. After the New York call, efforts to locate him proved fruitless.

Nickel, a 60-dollar-a-week clerk, who is accused of having embezzled more than a million dollars, is believed by police to have been but a pawn in the lot.

NATION-WIDE ATTENTION in the huge embezzlement case was turned to Palm Springs this

85-Mile-Per-Hour Pursuit Lost Here

Local police were alerted late Sunday afternoon, when the sheriff's sub-station at Banning reported that an automobile with a load of smuggled Mexicans had attempted to run a border-patrol road-blockade near Cabazon, thought better of it, and headed toward Palm Springs.

The message said that the border patrol men had chased the automobile carrying the aliens at 85 miles an hour in a government automobile but had lost it somewhere north of Palm Springs.

Two brothers, Alexander J. Strebe, 77, and George "Pop" Strebe, Sr., 72, who last saw each other 62 years ago, were united in Palm Springs last Friday.

"Pop" Strebe who is the father of Earl and George Strebe junior, greeted his older brother whom he last saw as a boy of ten years of age, back in La Fayette, Indiana.

Alexander Strebe, whose home is in Seattle, is the father of eight grown children, all of whom have visited in Palm Springs with his brother Pop and are acquainted with their cousins Earl, George and Mrs. Bernice Lafrantz also a child of Strebe senior here.

IT WAS A HAPPY REUNION here and both brothers declared they would have known each other despite the years that have passed. Asked why they waited so long to see each other, they replied it was business, raising a family and other things that interfered.

"But I've been planning this trip for a long time," beamed Alexander Strebe, "and at last I made it."

"Well," declared Pop Strebe, "if he hadn't come on down here I would have gone up to see him soon in Seattle."

ALEXANDER said that he left his home in LaFayette when 15 years of age and worked in the middle west and east for some time. Back before the turn of the 20th century, he said he migrated to Oregon and Washington when both those states were in their infancy. Not so long ago he retired from business and decided to take life a little easy.

"Want you to know we have another brother haven't seen for about 62 years back in Richmond, Indiana," Alexander said. "He is the oldest about 81 or 82 years of age and in good health too. Expect he'll be coming to California one of these days too," he added.

Alexander made the trip down from Seattle in an automobile driven by a friend of his who is visiting somewhere in San Diego and when that friend decides to return, he too will have to leave. Alexander is staying at the home of his brother while in the Village.

Publicity Drive Set in Motion

Twenty-four members of the Apartment House and Hotel Operators association met in the Fiesta House of the Desert Inn yesterday and selected a committee of three members to map a publicity campaign for Palm Springs.

Heading the committee is Ted Charleston and serving with him C. K. Fulton, owner of the Villa Hermosa and Walter Hirsch, recent purchaser of the Desert Retreat. It is understood the program the trio have decided upon is one of long range and may require perhaps $50,000 to carry it out. Immediately to be put into action would be a plan to obtain publicity in the Pacific northwest.

Building Total Drops But New Houses Boom

For the second time this year, building figures for the month dipped below those of the corresponding month of 1945.

In October, 1946, 51 permits were issued by P. Swart, of the building department for a total valuation of $157,834. In October, 1945, Swart issued 61 permits valued at $318,920.

But there is a bright spot in the picture, Swart said. In October, 1946, 36 new homes were started here. In the same month last year, but 30 new homes were begun.

The year to date, as of October 31, 1946, showed a total building valuation here, since January 1, 1946, of $6,379,980 as compared to $1,120,920 for the same period in 1945, a gain of almost six times.

Dog Show Entries To Close Thursday

Entry blanks for the second annual American Legion Kennel Show since the end of the war, are available at the chamber of commerce and should be submitted before Nov. 7, Thursday, Harry C. Harper, secretary, said today.

The show will be held Nov. 17 on the Masbie Court of the Desert Inn grounds and entries will close Nov. 7, Thursday.

Sister of Villager Is Taken by Death

R. H. Mann left Sunday for Los Angeles where he was to attend the funeral Monday morning of his sister Mrs. Laura Crosby, 72, of Highland Park. The telegram which notified Mann of his sister's death, said that she had died suddenly on the night of October 30. Funeral arrangements were handled by Arthur Cresse mortuary, 5800 North Figueroa.

More Time Given on Youth Center Letters

Because so many teen-agers here were interested in Halloween, Western Week and other events, by popular request The Desert Sun has postponed the closing day of its letter contest for youngsters on the topic: How Can the Proposed Youth Center be of Greatest Aid to Village Youth?

The original closing date was November 5. Youngsters who wanted to vie for the $100 in prizes asked that they be given two weeks more time and a compromise was effected on a ten-day extension.

Sun-Time Wins Favor At Meeting

Council Committee Hears Opinions of Village Residents

Day-light saving time for Palm Springs or "Sun-time" as the chamber of commerce calls the proposal, came in for plenty of heated debate before the general committee of the city council last night and all of the talking was done by Villager, winter home owners and "paying" tourists.

Listening to the public hearing were Councilmen Ted Martel, chairman of the committee; John Archibald, Culver Nichols and Armand Turonnet. Facing them in the audience were assembled approximately 125 persons who came down to tell the council what they thought of the idea of giving Palm Springs an extra hour of sunshine.

WHEN at the conclusion of the hearing, Councilman Martel asked the assemblage in favor of the proposal to stand all but approximately ten persons arose.

Harry Harper, secretary of the chamber of commerce directed the proponents of the measure asking first one person to rise and give their views and then another. This was in accord with the councilmen who wished to hear one side first then the other.

Frank Bennett, owner of Deep Well Ranch declared that the only asset Palm Springs has to offer the tourist and winter resident is sunshine and an extra hour would be of great benefit in luring these people to the Village.

"HOTELS and apartment house owners are back to that point where they are in competition with other resort towns now," asserted Bennett, "and an extra hour of sunshine would be a great publicity factor in drawing our share of the business."

Harry Harper declared that many people from the northwest who come to Palm Springs yearly to get away from the rain of the winter months come here only for sunshine.

"An extra hour of sunshine would be a great asset," emphasized Harper, "and the benefits that would accrue would outweigh the faults."

MANY OTHER proponents for daylight saving time spoke in its behalf. There was Ted Slocum, who claimed he sponsored the proposition two years before the war. Stanley Rosine arose to his feet and said it would be of a decided advantage for hotel operators. Frank Cutler, president of the Home Owners association, announced that the board of directors of that organization were unanimously in favor of "Sun-time."

Others who spoke in behalf of an extra hour of sunshine were Phil Delano, Mrs. Ruth Harding and several tourists who said they were "paying" tourists and would appreciate that extra hour of sunshine. Harold Hicks spoke ardently in favor of the plan.

E. W. Walker, representative of the Railway Express company who spoke against sun-time when opponents of the plan were asked to speak, changed toward the end of the meeting when he arose and said that if Palm

Judge E. E. Therieau Beams for 4th Time

It's alright to ask Judge Eugene E. Therieau for that proverbial cigar when you see him next. His wife, Margaret, presented him with a 7-pound boy Monday morning at exactly 8:07 o'clock at the Riverside Community Hospital in Riverside.

Both mother and baby were doing well, according to hospital attendants and Dr. Hobart Kelly, attending physician.

The Therieaus are now parents of four children, three boys and one girl. They are Eugene E. Jr., 7½ years of age; Carol Ann, 6; Dennis Anthony, 4, and the new born son, who was named Timothy Francis.

Eddie Haymaker, Mrs. Therieau's brother, accompanied his sister and brother-in-law in what turned out to be a fast ride from the Village to Riverside. They left by automobile here at 5:15 a. m., according to the Judge, and arrived at the hospital at 6:30 a. m. The baby was born approximately 90 minutes later.

Fifth Member Of Authority On Board Soon

Appointment of a successor on the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park authority for the late Harold J. English, is expected within the next few days, Earl Coffman, president of the authority, said today.

Gov. Earl Warren is expected to name the fifth member within the next week.

It was understood that Gov. Warren had made up his mind on the fifth member but was not expected to announce his name until later this week.

Members of the Tram authority who expect to hold an early meeting are Earl Coffman, president, and John R. E. Chaffey, secretary, both of Palm Springs; D. W. Grubbs of Riverside, James Nusbauer of Idyllwild, John Mackenzie of Los Angeles and Leonard Firestone of Los Angeles.

Under the act setting up the authority, two members were to be named by Palm Springs city council, two by the county supervisors and three by the Governor of California.

Coldest

Breezy Days Bring Drop in Temperature

Saturday, November 2, was the coldest of the year to date with the maximum reaching up to only 65 degrees. There was only a 15-degree differential between the maximum and minimum that day. The minimum was 50 degrees.

Palm Springs, as well as the rest of the southland, was in for a bit of breeze Thursday, Friday and Saturday. But the Village escaped the damage done in the citrus belt and along the coast where power lines were downed, roads blocked and shipping damaged by the wind.

Temperatures, since last reported in The Sun, were:

	Max.	Min.
October 31	79	38
November 1	81	40
November 2	65	50
November 3	71	41

Legion Auxiliary Will Receive Flag

A beautiful silk American flag will be presented Wednesday night to the Palm Springs American Legion auxiliary at its meeting at the Fiesta House, on the Desert Inn grounds.

The presentation will be made by Harold Lienau, past commander of Owen B. Coffman post of the American Legion, on behalf of the state guard of which he was first commanding officer.

The flag was presented to the state guard by a Villager at the start of the war. Acceptance will be made by Mrs. Charles V. Knapp, junior past commander of the auxiliary.

Villagers Go To 7 Polling Places Today

Lack of Contests Locally To Lower Vote, Is Forecast

In direct contradiction to the general trend in the state, where a heavy vote was predicted today, a small percentage of the 2110 Villagers, eligible to go to the polls, was expected to turn out today at the seven local precincts and at Cathedral City.

The answer was: No local candidates. Chief interest here was the Congressional race where John Phillips, a resident of Banning and well known here, was op-

ANOTHER FIRST

For several years The Desert Sun has been deputized to collect and tabulate Palm Springs election returns for the Riverside County Clerk. Tonight—for the first time in Village history—those tabulations will be "on the air"—almost instantaneously as they are counted—over KCMJ.

A RadioOasis microphone will be installed in Desert Sun election headquarters, and KCMJ, in affiliation with The Desert Sun, will frequently tell how Palm Springs and Cathedral City are voting, as the returns are counted.

Clinton Jones, KCMJ general manager, will broadcast bulletins at the following approximate times: 7:55 p. m., 9:10 p. m., 9:55, 10:55, and 11:55 p. m. All regular programs are cancelled throughout the evening for CBS-KCMJ coverage of the national elections.

posed by Ray Adkinson in the 22nd district representative race, and in the Senatorial contest where William Knowland, incumbent, was opposed by Will Rogers, Democrat, and Douglas Corrigan, Prohibitionist.

NO LOCAL CONTESTS were involved on the election. Philip L. Boyd, former Village mayor and now Assemblyman from this district, was re-elected at the primaries and is unopposed at today's election.

Observers are united in their belief that the Republican party will stage a great come-back today. In Palm Springs, Republicans hold a slight lead over the Democrats in registration but it is believed the count tonight will belie that proportion.

ONE COUNTY CONTEST arousing interest here is the race between Richard J. Welch and Russell S. Waite, both county seat lawyers, for the vacant seat on the county bench.

Besides the offices to be filled, ranging from Governor of the state to the superior court bench in the county, there are 17 propositions on the ballot which will make for a long count.

The Desert Sun has again been designated as deputy office for County Clerk G. A. Pequegnat and will check the local returns as fast as they come in.

Fire at the city dump last Saturday morning, starting out as a minor incident, kept firemen busy for two hours as result of the strong wind which swept the desert.

On Trial

Mrs. Hitchner in Court on Wednesday

Ruth Hitchner who is being held without bail in Riverside jail on a charge of shooting and killing her husband, Adam Hitchner, in the penthouse of their palatial home here October 11, is scheduled to appear in the Riverside justice court at 2 p. m. Wednesday for preliminary trial. Harry Dougherty, chief deputy district attorney, said he believed the defendant would plead self-defense when her case reaches the superior court. He added that he did not expect Mrs. Hitchner to take the stand in the justice court.

Desert Painting
By Paul Grimm on Display at Museum

Now on display at the Desert Museum, loaned by the Paul Grimm gallery, is a beautiful large oil painting of a typical Palm Springs desert scene, with snowcapped mountains in the distance and flaming red-purple sand verbenas under the creosotes in the sandy foreground. It was painted by Mr. Grimm himself and hangs back of the director's desk.

Donated to the Desert Museum last week was a large copper plaque of an original poem designed and executed by Roy E. Hardy of Banning. The poem entitled "God's Masterpiece," reads:

A mirage of Heaven's glory
Mid cactus, palm and sage,
Reveals to you a story
Of a remotely distant age,

That wonderful masterpiece supreme
Painted by God's own hand,
Unfolds before you like a dream,
In this mystic fairylend.

Mountains of colossal stature
Surround the desert in a ring
You'll find only joy and rapture
In the ethereal beauty of Palm Springs.

An addition to the collection of live animals now to be seen at the Desert Museum was an unusually large black widow spider captured by Mrs. Robert Haynes. Mrs. Haynes brought in two of the spiders, but the larger immediately attacked the other and devoured her, so that only one can be seen now.

It makes you feel good when you think people are better than you know they are.

Anyone passing the Jack Williams residence last Saturday must have wondered at the abundance of grass skirts flitting around and the gaily decorated front door. Members of the Alpha Theta Phi sorority of Redlands university were having their annual fall rush dinner at the home of Helen Louise Williams, a member of the group.

A Hawaiian luau was cooked by Hawaiian boys and served under palm trees in the patio. The tables, which were only seven inches from the ground, were covered with banana leaves and gaily decked with tropical fruit, the girls dined by sitting cross legged on pillows in true island style. Entertainment was furnished by an alumnus who danced several of the lovely hulas. Large tropical water lilies covered the swimming pool and when drawn into shore contained gift compacts for the thirteen rushees. Fifty members of the sorority drove down from Redlands for the dinner and all the girls donned Hawaiian dress for the occasion.

SUNDAY EVENING Dr. and Mrs. John Robertson Macartney received friends and guests of the Community church at the annual church reception. Especially honored this time were Rev. and Mrs. James Blackburn who have recently arrived in Palm Springs. Reverend Blackstone will be Dr. Macartney's assistant. Highlight of the evening was the musicale presented under the direction of Holly Lash Visel. Artists participating in the program were D'Estra Williams, harpist, Lois Lux, pianist and the Palm Springs trio composed of Holly Lash Visel, Violet Fowler and Mildred Welch Wagner. The trio, which has furnished entertainment for so many socials and meetings in the Village, is about to lose a member, Mrs. Wagner, who is leaving town within the next few days. This is sad news to everyone who has enjoyed their fine vocal selections.

Dog Show Entry
Blanks Available
At C. of C. Office

Palm Springs residents who wish to show off Fido in the annual Palm Springs kennel club November 17 now may obtain entry blanks at the chamber of commerce office at 310 North Palm Canyon drive.

The entry blanks must be in the hands of Jack Bradshaw, superintendent, by November 7. The show will be held on the Desert Inn masquerade course all day, proceeds to go to the Wars Memorial fund of the Owen Coffman post of the American Legion. Arrangements for the event are being handled by commander G. K. Sanborn and vice-commander Tom Kieley for the legion.

Jack Chambers has had a hard time sticking to business lately, the reason, that shiny black Ford convertible coupe. He and Elsa are really wearing out the highways these days. Betty and Tom Kiely got off on a belated vacation this week—their destination, Oceanside. We have it figured that they needed a vacation after their party of last Saturday night.

LIONS EARL HOUGH and Gus Kettman and others have been very busy this week whipping up the annual Hallowe'en party for the children of the town. This is one of the best ideas ever dreamed up and young and old are in favor of it. Brave Emogene Hume supplied entertainment for at least twenty of the smaller fry at her house Thursday. Children, ranging from the ages of four to ten sat down to a complete turkey dinner after whetting their appetites with various games and activities. Sharon Hume missed her birthday party earlier in the season so made up for it this week. A coming attraction to remember is the carnival at the high school tonight.

Armistice Day is Theme at Initial Eastern Star Rally

First meeting of the Eastern Star Luncheon club which took place at the Desert Inn Friday was dedicated to Armistice Day and representative heads of service organizations were the honored guests. Mrs. Florence Murphy president, presided and introduced the speakers.

Addressing the group in a stirring speech was Col. Bob Ellsworth, vice commander of the Owen Coffman post of the American Legion. He used as his theme the preamble to the American Legion constitution. Jerry Sanborn, commander of the post also spoke. Dr. James E. Potter, commander of the Disabled American Veteran's post 66, told of the work of that organization among the sick and ailing ex-servicemen of all wars. Harold Lienau, past commander of the Legion also spoke a few words as did Bill Rashall, as an officer of the DAV and the American Veteran's of World War II.

Dr. Ernest E. Oertel asked the assembled men and women not to forget the teachers when marking the ballot today.

A representative group of the Eastern Star members from the lodges at Coachella and Banning were present at the luncheon and introduced to everybody. Also at the table were members of that organization hailing from several distant cities in the United States. Approximately 60 men and women were present at the first luncheon.

Many Gay Parties
Feature of Week at La Paz Guest Ranch

A center of social entertainment this month has been the newly decorated dining room at La Paz Guest Ranch. One recent evening Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk complimented Maj. and Mrs. Robert Ransom at dinner. At a nearby table was Fred Cole, owner of the west's foremost bathing suit factory bearing his name which only recently has been transformed back to civilian production after doing war work in manufacturing parachutes, who entertained a group of friends. At his table were Mrs. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Aladar Laszlo (she being one of the nation's outstanding designers of sportswear), and the host's mother. When Mrs. James O'Reilly was hostess her dinner guests included Father McGann of the local Catholic church, and his mother.

La Paz as usual was well represented in the Western Week parade which terminated the week's festivities for that week. Paul Crockett, who is one of the outstanding breeders of palomino horses in the Los Angeles area rode under the La Paz banner, as did June Sindelar. Those on the colorful buckboard were Ruth Sougey, manager of La Paz; Mrs. Mildred Urbach of Beverly Hills, Jeannie and Jimmy Fouch with a group of their young friends. Also on horses were James Foster, of New York, and Don Piper, who recently arrived in Palm Springs to stay through the season.

Denver has been represented at La Paz for the past week with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Newstater. They own that city's largest department store.

Portland Couple Visits Villagers

En route to Coronado from their home in Portland, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruun are spending a week at Villa Hermosa. During their Palm Springs sojourn the northern couple, who are the uncle and aunt of Mrs. Charles K. Fulton, have been extensively entertained here by the Fultons.

The four attended the opening of The Stables Friday evening where they dined and had a picture of western life. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fulton were hosts to the Bruuns at dinner in Chi Chi's blue room, where Charel played their favorite selections.

The travelers left late this week to spend the remainder of the winter at Hotel del Coronado.

Regulars Are Flocking Back

Among the "regulars" returning to the Village this week for the season were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mack of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Burkett, official of the Bohemian Distributing company, Los Angeles. They are at the Bel Ardo Villas.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Worcester, owners of the Bel Ardo, entertained as their personal guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rasche, the former a prominent Los Angeles builder.

Many reunions featured the Bel Ardo week as former vacationers returned for another stay. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Garity, Los Angeles, Mrs. E. L. Claussen, Mrs. Idell Elliott, Burbank, B. H. Kendall and party of San Francisco and M. E. Glazier of Washington, D. C.

World's busiest railroad intersection is the junction at Clapham, near London, with 2,500 trains passing it daily.

New Golf Course Open Near Indio

A nine-hole golf course has just been completed on the Cochran-Oldum ranch near Indio and will be open Saturday, November 9, to the public, according to an announcement by Miss Helen Dettweiler, who will act as the golf-pro at the course.

The course is located on the ranch owned by Jacqueline Cochran, famous woman flier who recently placed second in the Bendix air races. Her husband, Floyd Oldum, is president of the Atlas Corporation.

The course was built under direction of Miss Dettweiler, who was western open golf champion in 1939.

Merit exists without high position, but one can reach high position without some merit.

School District Petitions Out At Polls Today

Petitions were in circulation at all polling precincts in Palm Springs today, seeking 1500 signatures to a request that the Village and Edom districts unite elementary school districts.

The Edom district is already in the high school district and residents there have placed enough names on a petition to join the Desert School district if a similar majority is received here.

A MAJORITY of electors in both districts must approve the plan before it can be presented to County School Superintendent E. E. Smith. D. D. Wallace, president of the Edom board, started the move.

It will provide an improved school situation and better educational facilities for our children at no additional cost to the taxpayers, he said.

UNDER THE PROPOSAL Edom youngsters in the first to the sixth grades will continue to attend school there but junior high and high school age pupils will be brought to Palm Springs schools.

Both President Charles J. Burket of the Palm Springs High School board and W. R. Hillery, president of the Desert District board, were heartily in favor of the merger.

Workers circulating petitions tomorrow have been instructed to stay more than 100 feet of the polls under a recent supreme court ruling. But it was felt that with so many people turning out tomorrow to cast their ballots, even at the legal distance from the polls, many signatures could be obtained.

Alaska is larger than the three largest states combined—Texas, California and Montana.

"Stogies" got their name from days when they were shipped in Conestoga wagons.

Girl Scouts Rally At Birthday Party On Mashie Courts

Village Girl Scouts and their leaders celebrated the 35th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of America with a picnic and games on the Mashie Courts of the Desert Inn between the hours of 4 to 7 p. m. Sunday.

There were fifty local Girl Scouts and Brownies present and a birthday cake with 35 candles was divided equally among the group. Of course, this part of the day's festivities was dessert because, prior to the cake cutting, the girls had opened their "nose-bags," name given by Girl Scouts for a lunch bag. They played games and sat around a huge bonfire and sang songs.

Earlier presentations of awards were made to Girl Scouts and the Brownies formed a "horseshoe" and had "fly-up" ceremonies which means that certain Brownies who had become of age and worthy of promotion, became Girl Scouts.

The best way to get to the top is by being the best man at the bottom.

Before Your Eyes
By BILL RASHALL

One wonders if the season has really begun in earnest. There certainly are a lot of people in the Village—the curbs jammed with parked automobiles and still there are those who say—"the season won't begin until November 15."

Well, I can remember last year at this time the season was definitely on. It was on about October 1, if the number of people in the town is to be used as a criterion. Last fall, following the close of the war, there were still a lot of soldiers stationed at the army air base and many of them lived with their families in the Village. This year there are no servicemen and this may have led people to declare that the season has not started yet.

SOME HOTELS and cocktail lounges have reported that business is way below that of last year. At the same time all are very optimistic as to the future. Since the close of the 1945-46 season, quite a number of hotels, have been finished in the town and many homes built. Here and there on side streets can be found new multiple units, also completed in time for the fall opening this season. Still there are those who feel that more hotels will be needed than now exist in Palm Springs, to take care of the crowds.

TALKING TO LILLY PONS and her husband, Andre Kostelnitz, at the Ingleside Inn the other day. Both come to the Village when playing the opera in Los Angeles.

"My," she said in her French accented English, "the Palm Springs, it has grown so since we were here last year, no?" Yes, I replied, it has grown much and will still grow a great deal more. No matter what size the town is she said, Palm Springs would continue to be the place where she would go for rest periods.

WINTER RESIDENTS and home owners in large numbers have not arrived in the Village yet because they wanted to vote in today's election back in their other home town.

All of the "spots" that operated at the close of last season are now open. Most of them have undergone a face lifting and two have changed hands and operators.

EVERYBODY KNOWS by now that the Doll House is under the management of George Strebe and doing well. The Rogers' Stables has been changed to "The Stables" and is under the operation of Charlie Morrison. The Lido has taken on two new partners and there are two new "spots" scheduled to open before the first of the year rolls around.

One of the most sedate, pleasant, and really beautiful fall openings took place at the Colonial House Friday. Without much fanfare and ballyhoo Bill and Thelma Davis were mighty glad to see the huge throng of people that crowded into the dining room and cocktail lounge of the reconstructed dining room.

THE ATMOSPHERE is "big-time." Ray Morton's orchestra in the band-shell playing the type of music it is famous for, certainly added a good touch of the metropolitan to the environment of the place. The food under the magic touch of Chef Victor Cavalier and his assistant, Henri Pages, was something everybody just raved about.

We can take our hats off to the Davises for the hard work during the sizzling summer, as they fought tooth and nail against "shortages" of building material, lack of skilled labor, and almost insurmountable barriers until at last the dining room opened, a sparkling gem in the diadem of desert night playing.

Ernie Baron at the Lido is dragging his share of the patrons into that place—one never tires of seeing the mimic and hearing him in his song interpretations.

DANNY GAUNT at the Chi Chi is really among the best of pianists in the Village. A trip there will prove what I am saying. For good music and equally as good food is Mr. Dee's. There you will find Valencia's Beachcombers dispensing good music—the sweet kind.

The Pago Pago is going full blast as is Bill Ude's Cafe across the street. At the latter place, the versatile Bill keeps you chomping with laughter with every bite of food he dishes up. He is the only old timer who reminds me of the old, old times. When was the last time you heard some one offer a "merchant's lunch"? It's been many years before the war that I have seen "merchant lunches" advertised. Ude sells this blue plate special at near the prewar prices too. What a guy!

That was a howler that came blowing through the pass Saturday, about the worse one that's hit the desert in many a moon. There are ethics in every man's

22 Enjoy Eagle Canyon Journey

Twenty-two persons made up the party hiking to Eagle canyon under the leadership of Desert Museum director Lloyd Mason Smith. A covey of desert quail, a pair of gnatcatchers, and a cactus wren were seen on the trip, as well as a red racer snake. The profile of George Washington was pointed out en route. At the base of the huge granite stairway, beside a bank of maidenhair fern and with a view of native desert palms and a large tamarisk downstream, the party rested before turning back to their parked cars. This trip was one of the regular Saturday trips sponsored by the Desert Museum, each week to a different canyon or nearby scenic area, and without charge.

ADDITIONS TO THE COLLECTION of live exhibits now to be seen at the Desert Museum last week were a live tarantula spider collected by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cota, and a young sidewinder captured by an employee of the Palm Springs drug and import company.

way of life and in business. This is especially true in the journalistic world. Sometimes a decision has to be made that is a borderline case—to do or not to do—to print or not to print. Ethics are involved. There are no rules—no guide book but experience. Experience can only be gained by time and maturity especially in a business like the publication of a newspaper. ## MORE ABOUT . . . Sun-Time . . .

Springs wants confusion, his company wanted to serve the Village and would do its best under the circumstances to give the best of service.

MRS. MILDRED KIRK, who said she has lived in Palm Springs a long time was absolutely against "Sun-time" because it would force children to start for school during the early morning hours when it was dark and cold.

Phil Delano at this point jumped up and said that his children have been awakening by "daylight" saving time for a long time and so were the neighbors' children. This brought a roar of laughter from everybody. Others against the proposition were "Shorty" Knupp, Jack Connel and others who remained unidentified.

H. F. LEFFERTY, Chicago, now staying at the Ingleside Inn, said that he visited St. Petersburg, Florida every year and during the season there that town was the only community in the state with an hour of extra sunshine. As a result Lafferty said it is known as the "Sunshine City" of Florida.

The meeting adjourned with no decision by the councilmen present and the unanswered question if those present during the hearing represented the sentiment of the Village.

VOTE FOR John Phillips for Congress

Because:

1. EXPERIENCE:

14 years of effective, energetic and honest service in state and national legislatures give John Phillips the background for continued able representation of this district.

2. SENIORITY:

John Phillips' membership on the AGRICULTURE, IRRIGATION and RECLAMATION, FOOD STUDY and MARKETING COMMITTEES are valuable assets to the electorate of his district.

3. VETERAN:

John Phillips is a Veteran of World War I, a Disabled American Veteran and FIVE members of his immediate family are Veterans of World War II. His representation of the veterans' interests has been consistent, sincere and productive.

Retain... EXPERIENCE and ABILITY Keep U. S. SENATOR Wm. F. KNOWLAND Working for You in Washington! WHY YOU Should Vote for Knowland, Nov. 5th

1. He Has Made Good. Knowland's marked ability is recognized by Senate leaders in Washington.

2. Knowland Is Recommended by Governor Warren: On September 13, 1946, Governor Warren said: "I appointed Knowland to succeed the late Senator Hiram Johnson because I believed in his integrity and capability. My belief in Senator Knowland has been strengthened by his fearless and intelligent record in the Senate."

3. Knowland Is Opposed by Communists and the Political Action Committee of the C.I.O. Archie Brown, the Communist Party's candidate for Governor, told a cheering audience of 6,000 "comrades" at a rally in Los Angeles on August 15, that William Z. Foster, the Communist's national leader, was in Southern California to help organize a campaign to defeat "the Warren-Knowland ticket." Knowland has announced that he welcomes the opposition of the Communists and the P.A.C.

4. Knowland Is Sound on National Security. Urging an Army, Navy and Air Force, "second to none," Knowland, a member of the Permanent Congressional Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, has made the following pledge: "Until a system of international law and order is established that will guarantee the peace of the world, I am unalterably opposed to the surrender of the atom bomb secret to any nation on the face of the earth."

5. Knowland stands for the American Way of Life as Opposed to Bureaucratic Regimentation.

6. Knowland Has Attained National Recognition as a Champion of the Veterans. An ex-G.I., Knowland is familiar with the problems facing the nation's veterans. He Has Worked and Will Continue to Strive to Solve the Housing Mess — America's No. 1 Domestic Headache. Fighting to stop the exportation of lumber to foreign lands, while it is so badly needed for homes here, he was successful in curbing the amount being exported. His recommendations for price adjustments to encourage production were adopted belatedly. He was successful in freeing hoarded surplus stocks for veterans. A leader in the fight to streamline the G.I. Bill of Rights, he also authored the bill to restore hospitalized veterans to full compensation and the terminal-leave-pay law.

7. Knowland Supports Permanent World Peace Through the United Nations, and a firm, non-appeasement policy instead of a cheap, unending peace through the false policy of appeasement and isolation.

Remember—Vote—Nov. 5th

U. S. Senator Wm. F. Knowland

Cantina Opens

New Store by Sam
& Leo Visited by Hundreds

Hor d'oeuvre of diamond rattle snake from Florida or pate de foie from France made of goose liver, teas from Ceylon and curry powder from India—these and many more delicacies can now be obtained right here in the Village at the new "Cantina" store opened Saturday by Sam and Leo at 189 S. Palm Canyon drive.

Since the formal opening of the new store operated by Sam and Leo in addition to their other establishment in the El Paseo building, literally hundreds of Villagers have visited the establishment. They have wandered from one corner of the new business to the other, gaping and "ah-ing" at the wonders they saw on the shelves—foods that haven't been seen in any grocery for many months.

IN ADDITION to the items listed above, on display are the finest liquors, both domestic and from the four corners of the world. There are such delicacies as caviar from Russia, sardines from Sweden, artichokes marinated in wine-vinegar. All of these things are in one department of the Cantina.

The other section is to be called the gift department. Here on display are home-bars and all of the various supplies with which to stock such a cocktail bar. There are special plates of wood and metal on which hors d'oeuvre are served.

TO ALL of this is added a display of barbecue wagons, that is, the kind that can be wheeled to any part of the back patio for delicious barbecue dinners. There are hamper too, in which to place champagne bottles, ice cube buckets and ice crushers. In other words, there is almost anything the host or hostess would want to stock their larders with as would meet any social occasion.

Mother of Star Weds in Nevada

Alta Goddard, who sold her home here at Paseo El Mirador just last March, is a bride.

She married Don Jacobsen at Las Vegas, Nevada, last Sunday night at 6 p. m., according to word received here.

Mr. Jacobsen is distributor in Los Angeles of Frozen Food Products. The couple will spend their honeymoon at the Last Frontier hotel in Las Vegas and then make their home in Los Angeles. The bride is the mother of Paul-ette Goddard, noted moving picture star.

Many Golfers on O'Donnell Course During First Day

Opening of the O'Donnell golf course Saturday found a large number of the game's followers testing out the new greens.

Fred Ingram, president of the club, advised that Villagers who like the game should turn out for it now before winter tourists from the north and east flock to Palm Springs.

"We had a nice turnout Saturday," Ingram declared, "but the course will not be really crowded until after the Christmas holidays. Those who like the game should take advantage of the course now before the out-of-towners arrive," he added.

The O'Donnell course is annually the scene of an open golf tournament with some of the outstanding players in the country participating. This year the tournament will get under way March 18 and will end five days later on the 23rd, it was announced.

Housing Projects To Be Topic of AMVETS Friday

Palm Springs post of the American Veterans of World War II is scheduled to meet Friday in the upstairs room of the fire hall at 8 p. m.

The meeting is expected to be attended by many veterans who are not members of the organization but who have made inquiries regarding veteran's housing projects in the Village. A report by the committee that called on Walter Z. Allen, with reference to the housing project he is developing is expected to be made, and will according to Dr. Claude Church, service officer, be the reason why so many non-members will be present.

Permanent housing committee, working in conjunction with the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans Palm Springs post is also expected to report.

Federalist Group In Initial Rally

First meeting of the winter season of members of the Palm Springs chapter of the World Federalists took place in the offices of the chamber of commerce Friday night with Mrs. Emily Nolan Jordan, president presiding.

Warner S. Noon addressed the

Junior High TATTLE - TALE

Western Week didn't pass through Palm Springs without coming out to Nellie Coffman. Gay times were had by all in a week of cap guns and fancy Western clothes.

The main event was the Kangaroo Court, held at Room 5 for Friday assembly. Roy Randolph, our tough Judge and local dancing teacher, sent out his deputies, Dorine, Pat, Benny and Ed. Many criminals were brought in, and locked in our make-shift jail while our Western Show was held. A number of people participated, but the winner was Jimmy Hicks, who had on a loud orange Western shirt, double guns, boots, Levi's and a cowboy hat. The prize was an ice cream bar a day for a week.

THEN THE master of ceremonies, Gerry Miller, gave the signal and the trial was on. The first bunch of desperadoes was brought on to the platform and were questioned as to whether they were guilty or not guilty. In spite of their pleas, they were tried and sentenced and were given crackers to eat and the first who could start whistling the National Anthem was the winner.

Jackie Fougé won and received as a prize—you guessed it—more crackers. Then Mr. Olsen, our 8-1 home room and physical ed. teacher was brought up and tried. He was sentenced to touch his ear with his tongue, but not being able to do this, he had to say a tongue twister five times very rapidly.

THE HIGHLIGHT of all was our principal, Mr. Mannington's arrest. He resisted and tried to escape around the side of the building, but tripped and was caught, and brought up to the court. He again tried to escape through a window but was caught by numerous enraged pupils and was brought up to be tried for high treason. He was charged with being principal of the school. His sentence was to ride off on one of the burros from the burro train, with hat, lunch pail, books and considerable home work. After assembly we went out and had football games.

Approximately one-third of the inhabitants of the original 13 American colonies in 1776 were loyalists and favored a continuance of British rule, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

group after which an open discussion followed. The public is invited to attend these meetings as they were last season, Mrs. Jordan announced.
